

Comment about anova command in R

`anova(fit.small, fit.large)` compares two nested models.

The p-value that is shown corresponds to $H_0$ : "small model is true"

Hence, if p-value  $< 0.05$  we conclude that we need the large, more complex model.